Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Application to conduct charity intersection collections.

Thank you for your application to conduct a charity intersection collection within the City of Darebin.

This letter is to confirm that the City of Darebin has no objection to the Good Friday Appeal holding doorknock collections throughout the municipality from March 16th to March 29th 2024 and intersection collections on March 27th, 28th and 29th at the following intersections:

- Broadway/High St, Reservoir;
- Edwardes St/Spring St, Reservoir;
- Cheddar Rd/High St, Reservoir;
- Darebin Rd/Victoria St, Thornbury;
- Dundas St/Victoria St, Thornbury;
- High St/Normanby Ave, Thornbury;
- St Georges Rd/Normanby Ave, Thornbury.

Under Section 28 of the Road Safety (Traffic Management) Regulations 2009, your organisation is required to apply for a Highway Collection permit with the Victoria Police. Further Information and Applications are available at www.police.vic.gov.au/highway-permit-applications. A copy of this letter should be included with your application.
